ATTENTION : ALL PHARMACISTS AND STUDENTS

Dear pharmacists and students:

The Philippine Pharmacists Association (PPhA) will hold its National Convention with the theme, "Filipino Pharmacists Embracing the Challenge of Change," on 24 May to 27 May 2017 at the City Coliseum, Puerto Princesa City, Palawan. This is a good learning venue where new knowledge and best practices can be disseminated from renowned experts, practitioners and researchers.

The 2017 National Convention Organizing Committee, through the Oral and Poster Presentations Subcommittee, invites you to participate in this interesting scientific gathering by submitting abstracts of your research studies in any of the two (2) areas: pharmacy practice and pharmaceutical sciences. Submitted abstracts may be accepted for oral or poster presentation.

We look forward to receiving your abstracts and participation to the 2017 National PPhA Convention.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Hazel Docuyanán, RPh, MS
Chair, Organizing Committee
